Pro Bono Publico!

IF YOU LOVE YOUR COUNTRY, encourage Home Productions. Why will you send abroad for wretchedly spurious articles, when you can have the good and true and beautiful of Oregon material and Oregon workmanship close at your very doors!

Why impoverish your country and its mechanics by the calculations of Prejudice, or by parsimonious misdirection?

HORATIO COOKE & CO.,
Corner of Alder and Second sts., Portland,

Have now on hand and are steadily constantly increasing a Large Stock of

of Oregon Material and Oregon Workmanship.

The following articles will be found to be part of their stock:

LADIES' WORK STANDS,
WASH STANDS,
CHESS TABLES,
ROCKING CHAIRS,
ARM CHAIRS, CRADLES,
CRIBS, SAFES,
SASH AND DOORS.

Other articles, too numerous to mention, either on hand or made to order.

The superscribers would modestly infer to the most gracious public of the State of Oregon that they would gladly exchange any or all of the above articles for "READY MONEY," or any other article of commerce that will by the conveyance give pleasurable sensations to the high contracting parties.

The life-spring of trade, "READY CASH,"
No matter in which way we view it,
Enables us onward to dash;
And therefore we mean to stick to it.

Billiard and Ten Pin Balls turned to the most exact spherical conformation.

Various kinds of turning executed with the beauty of true taste, and to the truth of true order.

SATURDAY MORNING AUGUST 1 1863

No flag but the Old Flag—the Red White and Blue
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and Old Glory's own spirit leave
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

TRAVELLING AGENT

Mr Lorain P Hicks is the duly authorized agent of the Daily & Weekly Oregonian will fully powers to receive all receipts and to transact & settle all outstanding business of this office in Washington Territory, Oregon and British Columbia

News by the Steamer.

We publish this morning all the intelligence received in San Francisco till the evening of the 27th of July The battle at Charleston still continues with vigor, and though the reports given are from rebel sources and not reliable there is little doubt that the contest will be long and severe and cause much sacrifice on our side The Mississippi river is now free, a steamer having passed up from New Orleans since the capture of Vicksburg and Port Hudson.

The rebel guerrilla Morgan whose lawless and furious exploits have caused much mischief and alarm in the border States and along the Ohio river has at last been captured with the largest part of his followers we trust his days of robbery and violence are forever ended

The rumor from Mexico of the establishment of a monarchy in that distracted republic, if true, bodes mischief hereafter between the Emperor of France and the United States He has violated his solemn pledge but that is a small affair with him if by falsehood he can achieve any gain or accomplish a purpose We do not see how the cabinet at Washington after their final and distinct declaration on the subject, can well avoid prompt and decisive action and it is possible that in that very action we shall find a means of uniting and binding fast together the sections of our nation now at variance If so this treacherous and ambitious scheme of Louis Napoleon will hereafter be hailed as a Blessing to the Union and to the world

An illustrious son of Kentucky, John J Crittenden—full of years, ripe with distinguished and deserved honors—has gone forever from the arena of earthly labor and duty A statesman and a patriot—an eminent lawyer and honest man, in every station which he filled, he proved himself worthy of the confidence reposed in him He was almost the last of that noble host of accomplished Whigs, who, with Clay and Webster, magnified their party and made it honorable. His death at this time is a severe loss to the Union cause in Kentucky, for though in some details he thought he could not coincide with the Administration, yet in the main, his eloquent voice and his mighty soul were always and with energy, given to the support of the Government May his memory and his example still, like a pillar of fire and of cloud, lead those who knew and honored him, through all the perils and temptations which so strongly beset Kentucky, and bring her out of this contest, loyal and free—faithful to the fame and integrity of Henry Clay and John J Crittenden

WHY GEN MEADE HAS NOT FOUGHT AT WINCHESTER.—The difficulties at Winchester consist in this It is impossible for the Union army to make any demonstration upon it without exposing its own communication and uncovering Washington For instance, if Meade should make Harper s Ferry his base of operations, and should advance directly from that point upon Winchester, Lee could avail himself of the Gaps in the Blue Ridge and pass to his rear If he should choose Williamsport as a base, the same state of affairs would exist, with this difference that a shorter route would be open to Lee for gaining Maryland again and cutting him off from his supplies And again if he should make the Potomac, from Harper's Ferry to Williamsport, his base, and should advance from there two points in concentric lines upon Winchester, Lee would have a chance to use up both armies in detail—a mode of proceeding in which he is evidently a master—or by precipitating himself with his whole force upon the column from Harper s Ferry, turn Meade's flank and seize his communications A consideration of these facts reveals the reasons why McClellan did not follow Lee to this place after the battle of Antietam and why Meade is now manœuvring for position If a battle, on anything like equal terms could be obtained in the vicinity of Winchester the new commander of the army of the Potomac would have precipitated it long ago — Ita

NEWS —Our readers will find a quantity of interesting news on the fourth page, in addition to the list of letters remaining in the post office

LAND SALE IN WASHINGTON TERRITORY — There will be a sale of the public lands in Washington Territory held at Vancouver on Monday next

LATER FROM THE EAST.

NEW YORK July 2 —Gen Fitzhugh Lee and Capt Winder have been placed in close confinement in Fortress Monroe as hostages for the safety of Capts Flinn and Sawtelle who are under sentence of death in Richmond, in retaliation for the hanging of two rebel officers by Rosecrans

Intelligence from Rio Janeiro to the 9th of June reports a difficulty between the American Minister Gen James Watson Webb and the Brazilian Government It is said that Webb demanded satisfaction from the Brazilian Government for having tolerated the Confederate steamers Alabama, Georgia and Florida in the waters of the empire at Pernambuco and it is stated that Webb demanded an indemnity for the burning of an American vessel and exacted the dismissal of the President of the provinces of Bahia and Pernambuco The Rio Janeiro papers state that the Imperial Government consented to dismiss the Presidents of the provinces named if the President of the United States approved of Gen Webb's course Brazil has expressed itself friendly to the United States but having recognized the Confederates belligerents it allows their armed vessels to enter ports the same as vessels sailing under any other flag

CINCINNATI July 2 —Morgan crossed the Muskingum 18 miles below Zanesville this forenoon Business is suspended at Zanesville the citizens turning out in large numbers to resist the raiders Scouts report them 1 000 strong, with three pieces of artillery

Despatches from Memphis to the 21st state that Gen Hurlburt's scouts had arrived that day from Okolona, Miss, bringing Mobile papers of the 17th, containing leading editorials from the Charleston papers which say the possession of Morris Island by the Federals seals the fate of Charleston, and calls their forces to drive the Yankees off at the point of the bayonet, and if that fails to make Charleston a Zaragoza and then burn the city as it is at present They blame Jeff Davis for not leaving troops enough to defend the place

Correspondence from Bragg's and Johnston's armies depict them as destitute and greatly demoralized and it but remains for them to make the best terms possible Scouts report that a majority of the planters are anxious for the Federals to maintain possession of the country before Jeff Davis Conscript Act can be put in force Great consternation is reported as prevailing throughout the whole Southern country

BALTIMORE July 23 —1000 rebel cavalry attempted to cross the Potomac at Net Mac Ferry last night, intending to tear up the track of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad The design was frustrated by a band of independent rangers, who drove the rebels off

NEW YORK, July 24 —The Herald says the New York steamer Circassian arrived at Fortress Monroe on the 21st, from Charleston the 19th A general engagement was just commencing as she left Gen Gilmore had attacked a masked battery in the woods quite near Fort Wagner, and he expressed no doubt but that the attacks by himself and Admiral Dahlgren would prove successful As the early morning shadow disappeared the attack began and a perfect shower of shot and shell poured into Fort Wagner The Circassian's orders were imperative, and she could not stay for the termination of the day's fighting

A special dispatch to the Tribune says the War Department is pushing on the organization of colored troops vigorously The successes of our forces were giving fresh impetus to the enlistment among the blacks, and by autumn it is estimated that 10,000 [100,000?] negroes will be in arms in the valley of the Mississippi

Intelligence has been received by Commissioner Dole of the safe removal of the Sioux and Winnebago Indians from Minnesota, in pursuance of the act of Congress They are now located on the Missouri river, a few miles above Fort Randall All the goods of the Winnebagoes had arrived and everything was working well, and no further difficulties are apprehended

The recent expedition of Admiral Lee up the James river was simply a reconnoissance, the object of which was obtained Admiral Lee has returned with the gunboats

CINCINNATI July 24 —Shortly after Morgan crossed the Muskingum he was attacked by the militia under Col Hall, with two pieces of artillery Fifteen rebels were killed and several wounded His progress was checked twice by Col Hall but he finally escaped via Cumberland Guernsey county, which place he left at 7 o'clock last night The morning he crossed the Central Ohio railroad at Campbell's, so closely pursued by Gen Shackleford that he had no time to do any damage beyond burning the depot and tearing up some of the track At 9 o'clock this morning he reached Washington, where he did considerable damage Shackleford was close after him About 50 rebels got detached from Morgan's command, in the vicinity of Taylorville After crossing the Muskingum they roamed about the country burning houses and killing stock A force has been sent after them

CINCINNATI, July 24 —A cavalry expedition from Charleston Western Virginia, to cut the Virginia and Tennessee railroad at Wytheville, captured that place after a severe fight, and took 120 prisoners two pieces of artillery, and 700 stand of arms Our loss is 60 killed and wounded The enemy's loss was 75 killed and a large number wounded Our troops were fired on by citizens from the houses, and hence the town was totally destroyed The expedition reached Fayetteville [Western Virginia] yesterday after a hard march of 300 miles

CINCINNATI, July 24 —A detachment of the 87th Ohio had a skirmish with the rebels at 11 o clock to-day, and succeeded in driving them out of Washington When last heard from, Morgan was at Winchester 12 miles north east of Cambridge moving towards Steubenville on the Indiana road closely pursued

FORTRESS MONROE, July 24 —The Richmond Whig says At Jackson, Miss, there were left in the hands of the enemy the rolling stock of the New Orleans and Jackson and of the Great Northern Mississippi and Tennessee roads, with the motive power, consisting of 40 engines The loss is incalculable

The Federal cavalry raid from Newbern reached Rocky Mount, on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad on the 20th It destroyed two miles of the track and burned the bridge over the Neuse river cutting off communication for some weeks

WASHINGTON July 24 —It is definitely ascertained that Lee's main army is at or near Winchester and has made no general advance down the Shenandoah Valley

CINCINNATI July 25 —10 A M —Last night's despatches say Gen Meade's army has attained already an advantage on position and will force Lee to a decisive battle north of the Rappahannock river Gen Meade has probably cut the line of Lee's supplies Direct communication between Washington and the headquarters of the Army of the Potomac has been opened

A special dispatch to the Fortune gives advices from Fortress Monroe to last evening No mail or transportation intelligence had been received at that place as to operations about Charleston An officer recently returned from the ile of Charleston, reports that at the time of his leaving matters were progressing favorable So far we had gained each day and the reduction of Forts Wagner and Sumter was considered certain The greatest confidence was felt in the plans of Gen Gilmore Admiral Dahlgren and the ultimate capture of Charleston was regarded as a fait accompli

NEW YORK July 25 —Sterling is in moderate request at 1 84 Gold is firm at 12[illegible] Government securities steady Sixes of 81, coupons 106[illegible]106 7 30s 106[illegible]107 Pacific 2

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC July 25 —The rebels were in force yesterday near Front Royal We drove their cavalry from Manassas Gap about sunset It is believed that the enemy intend crossing the Blue Ridge at Chester Gap or Thornton's Gap

WASHINGTON July 25 —The National Republican says that positive information received states that Lee has been delaying on the Potomac to enable him to get away safely with the plunder collected in Maryland and Pennsylvania It also states that his forces have been gathering the new crops of grain in the Shenandoah valley He is now moving toward Richmond with immense trains of supplies the necessity of procuring which has been increased by the fall of Vicksburg and Port Hudson, which is now utterly cut by the cutting of the Tennessee and Virginia railroad the great medium of procuring supplies

The Navy Department has received advices of the capture of the steamer Lizzie of Nassau, after a chase of two hours Her cargo consists of dry goods provisions brandy &c

Official advices from Admiral Porter say his expedition to Red river was very successful He ascended to the headwaters of the Black and Tensas, and says he captured two steamers laden with stores for the rebel army Two steamers were also burned by the rebels, to prevent them falling into our hands One steamer laden with ammunition escaped above the fort at Harrisonburg A large quantity of ammunition for small arms and artillery was also captured

ST LOUIS July 25 —It is officially announced that trade is open to New Orleans under certain restrictions The steamer Imperial arrived to day, having made the trip through and back since the fall of Vicksburg and Port Hudson

NEW YORK July 25 —Sterling exchange 1 88@1 39 Gold firm, in consequence of the large exports, closing at 127@127 The exports of specie to day were $1,000,000 Government securities steady—6s of 81, coupons 1062, 7 30ths, 106 (a 106

CINCINNATI July 26 —A telegram from Gen Shackleford dated near New Lisbon, Ohio, says I have succeeded in capturing the rebel General, John H Morgan, Colonel Clarke, and the balance of the command, amounting to about 400 men

CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 27 —A detachment of the 9th Michigan Cavalry forced Morgan to an engagement near Salinesville yesterday morning After six hours fight the rebels fled in the direction of New Lisbon At 3 P M they were overtaken by Gen Shackleford and all were captured In the morning's 20 to 30 were killed, 50 wounded, and 200 captured 400 horses and 150 stand of arms were also taken

FRANKFORT, Ky, July 26 —The Hon John J Crittenden died at half past 3 o clock, this morning of general debility, aged 77 years

NEW YORK, July 27 —A letter in the Herald, from Jackson, Miss, of the 12th, says that the library of Jeff Davis has been captured, comprising several bushels of private and political papers of the arch traitor Several letters on secession date back to 1852 The whole collection will bring to light the secret history of secession There are letters from both Northern and Southern traitors

LEAVENWORTH, Kansas, July 25th —A severe fight occurred on the 6th, at Elk Creek, between 2 400 Federals with 12 guns, under the command of Gen Blunt, and 5,000 rebels, under Cooper, which resulted in the complete route of the latter, with a loss of 60 killed, 20 wounded and 100 prisoners Our loss was 10 killed and 30 wounded We captured a quantity of commissary stores and one piece of artillery

NEW YORK, July 26 —A letter from Winchester, Tenn, of the 8th announces the capture of Huntsville, with 300 prisoners and 1,200 horses and mules by Gen Stanley Bragg's army is reported to be reduced by desertion to 18,000 or 20,000

WASHINGTON, July 26 —Richmond papers have the following

CHARLESTON, July 19 —The Ironsides, with five Monitors and a gun mortar boats, assisted by two land batteries, fired furiously at Fort Wagner all yesterday After a furious bombardment of 11 hours, the enemy assaulted Wagner desperately and repeatedly Our people fought bravely and repulsed the attacks with great slaughter

BEAUREGARD

CHARLESTON, July 22,—The enemy have commenced shelling again Our loss on the 18th was 150 killed and wounded The enemy's loss, including prisoners, was about 2 000 Nearly 800 were buried under a flag of truce

NEW YORK, July 27 —From the Herald's accounts of operations near Charleston, it appears that the rebels attempted to drive our forces from James Island The attack was sudden and unexpected, but Gen Terry met and repulsed them with great slaughter The gunboat Pawnee, which supported the left flank, grounded, and a rebel battery opened on her, firing 50 shots, 39 of which struck her Subsequently she floated off and opened upon the rebels, put them to flight

The bombardment of Fort Wagner was renewed on the 22d the ironclads co-operating with the army During the day Fort Wagner was silenced for some time, and a charge was made by our troops After a desperate struggle, they were obliged to fall back Our loss was quite severe, and will probably reach 1 000

NEW YORK July 27 —The details of the charge of the 22d made on Fort Wagner show the most desperate fighting by Gen Strong's brigade Scarcely a field or line officer escaped being wounded, and many were killed Meantime nearly the whole rebel force was concentrated upon the 54th Massachusetts colored regiment They fought heroically and only retired when the others did

Col Putnam in command of the storming party after he had gained a part of the Fort planted a flag on the parapet, and sent to Generals Strong and Seymour for reinforcements but both these generals had been wounded Meantime his party were being decimated by rebel grape and when Stevenson's brigade had received orders to advance it was too late—our gallant men had been forced to retire

New York Gold Quotations —
San Francisco Legal Tender rates —

REFRESHING —We received yesterday, from Mr G W Walling, of the Willamette Nursery, a quantity of fine new cider, which a number of the most astonishing experiments were immediately made youthful demon, while wistfully eyeing empty measure, observed that the only complaint he had to make was that the "cider was diseased—it was afflicted with an incurable consumption."

WELCOME —We notice with pleasure the arrival from the East of our old friend Capt John Mullan, the constructor of the Fort Benton wagon road We understand that the captain returns to our coast with the intention of permanently residing among us He has selected Walla Walla for his future home

BETH-ISRAEL SCHOOL —The fall term of the Beth Israel School will commence on Monday, August 3d, under the supervision of Rev. I Borles, as teacher of German and Hebrew G. F. Boynton, principal of the English department, and Mrs F M Boynton, assistant A fine new house has been erected during the vacation, at an expense of over $3,000, which in point of convenience and finish is superior to any other school building in the city The principal room has accommodations for 80 scholars, it also contains a large recitation room and spacious hall This is not a sectarian school, yet it is the intention of the directors to keep it select, and make it second to none on the coast

THE STEAMER Wilson G Hunt arrived from the Cascades last evening, bringing the passengers from Umatilla and the upper country Upwards of 150 pounds of gold dust was forwarded to Wells, Fargo & Co, besides a considerable quantity in private hands.

"THE POOR OF LONDON" —The performance of this beautiful drama last Thursday night—the occasion of the benefit of Mr G B Waldron—was the most successful and effective representation we have witnessed at the theater since its opening by the present company With the exception of a single character, the piece was rendered in a manner that reflected the highest credit upon all engaged therein and the audience were alternately delighted and affected at the excellent delineation of the intense humor and pathos with which the play abounds Mr Waldron was well received on appearing upon the stage, and at the conclusion of the performance was called before the curtain The piece was well chosen, for we have never seen Mr. Waldron appear to such advantage as in the character of "Tom Trumper" The personation was so easy and natural that we heard it hinted by an admiring agricultural swain that "he guessed that chap had been in that business before" We regret that lack of space prevents our noticing further this well rendered drama

This evening the historical drama of "Jack Cade" and the farce of "Crowded Houses" will be performed

THANKS —We are indebted to Mr B B Wyman, purser of steamship Sierra Nevada for list of passengers and for full files of San Francisco newspapers

To Mr J. W. Sullivan, news dealer of San Francisco, we owe our acknowledgments for sending to us, by Mr J Herron, Wells, Fargo & Co's never failing messenger, a pile of papers from the States, which, at great cost are forwarded to Mr Sullivan by overland mail, in advance of the Panama steamer

MEETING —The Ladies' Sanitary Aid Society will hold their regular monthly meeting this (Saturday) evening, at two o'clock, at the Presbyterian Church

NEWSPAPER ARCHIVE®

THE CONSCRIPTION.—The announcement by telegraph news that the efforts made to induce the national government to abandon the conscription, so far as the city of New York is concerned, have failed is quite as cheering as the news of victory on the field of battle. It is due to the pressure would be to concede that the rioters were right—to offer a premium for similar outrages elsewhere—to weaken the moral influence and to take from our armies the inspiring hope of being reinforced. So far as the operations of the draft has been enforced in the Eastern States with but little difficulty. Admitting the necessity of showing that resistance to the laws will not be tolerated, but punished, it is due to the old element in those of other cities and States that New York should not be made the exception. The conscription is the greatest executive measure of an administration that is never swerved from its declared purpose of conquering a peace. Thus far notwithstanding the mob violence of the city of New York this crowning test of the strength of the government has been successfully applied. But one thing further is required. Let a commission be appointed to inquire into the origin of the anti-conscription riot with a view to reaching the instigators of anarchy plunder and murder. This is demanded by the blood of O'Brien and other loyalists who lost their lives while striving to maintain the supremacy of the laws by a merciful regard for the deluded victims of traitorous politicians and as a guarantee of future peace. We know the shrewd incendiaries so cover up their tracks that to ferret them out may be a difficult task. We know that Governor Seymour is pledged to protect these secret traitors from summary arrest. But the law passed by Congress provides for such cases, and its constitutionality has not been disputed in any court. Let the governor of New York take the responsibility of screening the guilty if he be so inclined. The duty of the nation and authorities is imperative, whatever may be the character or extent of the opposition.—Sac. Union

THE CAMPAIGN IN OHIO.—The nomination of Vallandigham for Governor does not appear to be well received by the better part of the Democracy of Ohio. The Cleveland Plain dealer, while approving in part the party platform and supporting in part the State ticket, gives Vallandigham the cold shoulder. The Democratic organ of Summit county is also dissatisfied, and so far refuses to raise the name of the great peace agitator at the head of its columns. Several other papers are equally equivocal in his support. Judge Jewitt, says the Cincinnati Commercial, with held his approval of the nomination for Governor, and Judge Pease of Cleveland, and a host of influential Democrats in that section of the State bolt it entire. Goddard, a citizen of Cleveland, whose name was fraudulently affixed to a late call for Vallandigham meeting in that city, publicly denies authorizing the use of his name and says: I am a Democrat—a Union Democrat—and so is every man that is a friend to his country. There are now but two classes in the North, one class for his country, the other against his country—the one a friend, the other a traitor. And any man who votes for Clement L. Vallandigham belongs to the latter class." Meanwhile, honest John Brough the Union candidate, is everywhere gathering friends among the people, who are not yet ready to surrender unconditionally to the enemy.

INDORSED by the extensive sale and unprecedented popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters, as well as by the many certificates of the most reliable character and standing, which have appeared in the columns of the Newspapers in the vicinity of the Proprietor, testifying to their virtues, and to the astonishing cures they have effected, many of which purport to be from Clergymen of the various denominations, Physicians, Statesmen, and others, we deem it unnecessary to say anything more than that the Proprietor has thousands of letters in his possession, many of which he is permitted to publish, from persons in all parts of the country, certifying to the above facts, which can be seen at his office, and which he will take pleasure in showing to any person who may call upon him.

CLERGYMEN,
LAWYERS,
PHYSICIANS
CITIZENS,

Testifying of their own personal knowledge to the benefits to be derived from the use of these Bitters, are daily coming to hand, and we would ask of the afflicted, Do you want something to strengthen you? Do you want a good appetite? Do you want to build up your constitution? Do you want to feel well? Do you want to get rid of nervousness? Do you want energy? Do you want to sleep well? Do you want a brisk and vigorous step? If so, use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From Rev. J. Ayer's Boston Daily Journal and Times.

Although not disposed to favor Patent Medicines in general, the high character of Hoofland's German Bitters, and the well-established reputation of their author, have induced us to make an exception in favor of the former. We have not only received numerous certificates of their virtues, but have used them in our own family, and know them to be all that is claimed for them. We have used them for Dyspepsia, Debility, and Liver Complaint, and have found them to be a most excellent remedy. We have also used them for Children suffering from Worms, and have found them to be a safe and effectual remedy. We have also used them for Children suffering from Worms, and have found them to be a safe and effectual remedy. We have also used them for Children suffering from Worms, and have found them to be a safe and effectual remedy.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many spurious imitations of the name of Hoofland's German Bitters, put up in similar style to counterfeit the genuine article, and sold to unsuspecting dealers, who, in order to make a few cents more on a bottle, will recommend the counterfeit to their customers. Be sure and call for Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by DR. C. M. JACKSON, and do not be imposed upon by any of the counterfeits that may be offered to you.

Hoofland's German Bitters!

Are not an ardent spirit in any form. In the whole Pharmacopeia of Medicines there is not a preparation which has received such unqualified evidence of its virtues as the Bitters. Many of the most eminent Physicians have been forced to acknowledge the efficacy of these Bitters, after having prescribed for years the various nostrums of the day, to the destruction of their patients. Hundreds of the most eminent Clergymen in the country have been induced, from a sense of duty they owed to suffering humanity, to give certificates of the wonderful effects of these Bitters in their own families, and in cases where all other remedies had failed. Many of the most wealthy citizens of our country have been restored to health by the use of these Bitters, after the most skilful physicians had exhausted their skill upon them, and pronounced their cases incurable. Hundreds of Ministers of the Gospel, of all denominations, have been induced to lend their influence in favor of these Bitters, from the fact that they have been restored to health and strength by their use, after having been laid aside from their pastoral duties for months and years, unable to perform any labor, mental or physical. Hundreds of mothers have been induced to give certificates of the wonderful effects of these Bitters in restoring their children to health, after they had been given over by their physicians as incurable with Consumption. Hundreds of females have been induced to give certificates of the wonderful effects of these Bitters in restoring them to health, after they had been given over by their physicians as incurable with Consumption. PHILADELPHIA, June 23 1863.

Henry Jones & Evans—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters have saved my life. There is no use to take up time. But I touched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are opposite it, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am and have been for the last five years a member of Shoemaker's celebrated battery, and I made the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure incident upon my arduous duties I was attacked in November last with an intermission of five days and was absent twenty two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to the city on board of the steamer Star of the West, from which I landed on the 26th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water in my stomach. I could not sit up for the exercise, and accordingly the physicians who had been waiting faithfully, though unsuccessfully, for me to die, the gangs of friends and relatives who were all ready to make me, and dressed in the habiliments of the grave, to be deposited by my brethren, I am sure I lost sight of me. A countryman of mine, Dr. Hospital Steward of Sixth and Arch Street, advised me, as a last hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle from the store. I commenced taking them, and gloomy shadow of death receded, and I felt, now, that I should get better. Although I have taken but two bottles I have gained [illegible] pounds, and I feel sanguine that by a few more I will regain my wonted health and strength. I have found nothing for children troubled with Worms equal to your German Bitters. Please publish this for the benefit of my fellow soldiers and friends.

Yours truly,
JOHN CUDDIBACK, 1st New York Battery.
